Football Anyone?

How football words and phrases illuminate what goes on in some churches...

QUARTERBACK SNEAK: Church members quietly leaving some time during the service.

HALF TIME: The time between Bible class and worship.

BENCH WARMER: Those who do not sing, pray, teach, work, or apparently do anything but sit.

BACKFIELD IN MOTION: Making a tip to the back (water fountain or rest room) during the service.

STAYING IN THE POCKET: What happens to a lot of the money that should be given.

TWO-MINUTE WARNING: the point at which members realize that the sermon is almost over and they begin to collect children and belongings.

INSTANT REPLAY: The preacher reuses last week's illustration.

TRAP: When the preacher catches you sleeping.

SUDDEN DEATH: What happens to the attention span of the congregation if the preacher runs overtime.

END RUN: Getting out of the church quickly without speaking to any guest or member.

FLEX DEFENSE: The ability to allow absolutely nothing the preacher said in his sermon to affect your life.

HALFBACK OPTION: The decision by 50% of the congregation not to return for the evening service.
