Capsule sermons

- Swallowing your pride seldom leads to indigestion.
- One thing you can give and still keep is your word.
- You can preach a better sermon with your life than with your lips.
- There is nothing stronger in the world than gentleness.
- If you don't have a sense of humor, you're like a wagon without springs, jolted by every pebble in the road.
- No one suffers from dizziness by doing good turns.
- Perseverance is not a long race but many short races one after the other.
- It's wise to keep in mind that no success or failure is necessarily fatal.
- Before you flare up at another's faults, count 10 of your own.
- Sometimes you can make a very effective statement by saying nothing.
- A cloudy day is no match for a sunny disposition.
- Learn to listen; opportunity sometimes knocks very softly.
- Correction does much, but encouragement does more.
- Life is not a problem to be solved, but a gift to be enjoyed.
- Optimists are wrong just as often as pessimists, but they have more fun.
