In Our Prayers

Peggy Walker has improved some but still has a long road ahead.

James and Holly Barr are much better after suffering with the flu, however little Charlie continues to be sick.

Jim Wright suffered a problem with his heart while working yesterday at Camp Wetoga. He was flown to Piedmont Hospital.

Rita Mathis, of Blue Ridge, is undergoing very serious tests at this time.

Lillie Hall has been moved to the nursing home.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Harold Neal is his passing away. His funeral was this past Tuesday. Please remember his wife Linda, and the rest of the family in your prayers.

Youth News

There will be an area wide youth devotional in Adairsville on Sunday, April 14th. The C-Squad will be a part of this activity so please plan to be there! We will meet at the church building at 4:15 to attend the evening service in Adairsville. After worship, we will all go roller skating and pizza. The cost is $6 a person. We will be back in Ellijay between 9:30 and 10:00. Please plan to attend this great time of fellowship and getting to know other people from local congregations!

Also, this does conflict with the C-Squad activity that was planned on Sunday, April 14th. We had planned to take cookies/baked goods to some of our elderly/shut ins and enjoy some singing with them. Holly would like to reschedule the activity of visiting some of our elderly/shut ins for Saturday, April 13th. She would like to meet at the fellowship hall at 2:00 to prepare the baked goods and around 3 leave for the visits. We will do this for a couple of hours (or so) then go to eat somewhere together. Please put this on your calendars.

Also, several young men will be speaking at the Murphy Church of Christ on Sunday, April 21. Please be praying for them as they begin to work on "Year Round Speech" for Lads to Leaders.

Thanks for supporting our C-Squad!

All ladies are invited and encouraged to attend the ladies weekly Bible Study Tuesdays, from 9:30am - 11am. Please see "the sisters" should you have any questions.
