We are so glad that you are with us today! Our service will be to praise and worship God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week. We will sing (Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16), pray (James 5:15-18), and partake of the Lord's Supper to remember our Savior's sacrifice on the cross (Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 11:23-26). We will also give back a portion of the monetary blessings that God has granted us so that we can carry out His work in our community (1 Cor. 16:2, 2 Cor. 9:7). We will also study a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to our daily lives, so that we can be equipped to handle the pressures of this world and reach those outside of Christ (2 Tim. 2:15).

Donations are still needed for Camp Wetoga to help cover scholarships and the cost of drinks. Please see Barry Pritchett with questions.

"From the Top of the Mountain Above Flat Branch"

My friend Charles Hodge wrote a bulletin article for many years entitled. "From the Banks of Onion Creek". He and I discussed his title one time and after visiting Ellijay, he helped me come up with the above title for me to use.

I want to thank each of you for your prayers and support for Susan and I during this time having the total knee replacement. I have been challenged this week developing gout in my foot. It has been hard to tell which hurt worse, the foot or the knee. I am hoping the gout is leaving and rehab on my knee is going as well as possible.

It's at times like these when I have time to reflect and to recall the memories of days gone by and to meditate more on where I am in my relationship with God. It's sad that we have to experience something like an illness to slow us down and for us to have time to look at priorities of what is really important in our lives. Psalm 46 expresses much of the very thoughts that need our attention all the time, not just in the time of illness.

> "Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!

The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge." Psalm 46:10-11

Susan and I love you, God loves you and I hope to see you face to face soon!

Cut to the Chase

Here are the devotional thoughts for you and your family this week. We hope that these have been of great assistance to you and your family, and that they will continue to help you grow in God's word.

1. Psalm 34:15-18 Does God ignore those who are not in a good relationship with Him? If a person who was not in a good relationship with God prayed, would God listen to them?

2. Psalm 37:7-11 According to this passage, how should we handle those who cause us problems? What should we do about those who do evil to us?

3. Psalm 41:1-3 Does God repay us when we do good to those around us? Are we rewarded on this earth when we do what God wants us to?

4. Psalm 43: 1-2 Is it wrong for us to question God about why things are happening

5. Psalm 49:7-9 What is this verse trying to say? Are we able to save someone from being condemned? Who saves us?
