...Spreading the Good News

July 21, 2013

Welcome to our Visitors! Please complete the visitors card and pass it to the end of the aisle. It will be collected after announcements so we will have a record of your visit. We hope you come as a guest, and leave as a friend.

SUNDAY: Bible Study 9:30 a.m. Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
Evening Worship 6:00 p.m. WEDNESDAY: Bible Study 7:00 p.m.

In Our Prayers

Peggy Walker continues to be in need of our prayers.

David Cochran also remains in the hospital and in need of our prayers.

Ashley Messer Crawford is recovering from an automobile accident.

Margie Jones, Terry Stuart's aunt, remains critical in ICU in Canton's hospital.

Charles Plush, Willa Mae Holloway's brother, has been released from the hospital on hospice. Please keep this family in your prayers.

Chief Cross has been having problems with his blood pressure the last several weeks.

Sandra Pankey is doing better after having serious blood pressures problems as well.

Gloria Roberts of Highgate, Jamaica, is scheduled for surgery on the 24th. She is an elderly member but always has Bible studies set up for the campaigners when they arrive. Please keep Ms. Gloria in your prayers.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Ernest "Sonny" Jenkins, in his passing away. Sonny is Quentin and Joann Holloway's brother in law. Funeral service was this past Friday.

Please also keep the family and friends of 12 year old Jade McAlister, of Fannin County, in your prayers. She was on a mission outreach at Panama City Beach with her youth group about two weeks ago and drowned. Walker Gregory, who attends here, was a classmate of hers.

COMING UP IN AUGUST...

4TH - Annual North Georgia Back to School Youth Night. Everyone invited.

Ellijay Church of Christ
ANNUAL NORTH GEORGIA
BACK TO SCHOOL
YOUTH NIGHT
Sunday, August 4th 6pm
ARE YOU READY?
Special Speaker - Andrew Kingsley
Special Song Leader - Jon Podein

When I was a child, my mom liked to make breakfast food for dinner every now and then. And I remember one night in particular when she had made breakfast after a long, hard day at work. On that evening so long ago, my mom placed a plate of eggs, sausage, and extremely burned biscuits in front of my dad. I remember waiting to see if anyone noticed! Yet all my dad did was reach for his biscuit, smile at my mom and ask me how my day was at school. I don't remember what I told him that night, but I do remember watching him smear butter and jelly on that biscuit and eat every bite!

When I got up from the table that evening, I remember hearing my mom apologize to my dad for burning the biscuits. And I'll never forget what he said: "Honey, I love burned biscuits."

Later that night, I went to kiss Daddy good night and I asked him if he really liked his biscuits burned. He wrapped me in his arms and said, "Your Momma put in a hard day at work today and she's real tired. And besides—a little burnt biscuit never hurt anyone!"

Life is full of imperfect things . . . and imperfect people. No one is great at every thing. We all forget birthdays and anniversaries. A lesson we could all learn is accepting each other's faults—and choosing to celebrate each other's differences—is one of the most important keys to creating a healthy, growing, and lasting relationship.

Think of what a lesson we could learn, if we could all take the good, the bad, and the ugly parts of our life and lay them at the feet of God. Because in the end, He's the only One who will be able to give you a relationship where a burnt biscuit isn't a deal-breaker!

We could extend this to any relationship. In fact, understanding is the base of any relationship, be it a husband-wife or parent-child or friendship. Someone said, "Don't put the key to your happiness in someone else's pocket—keep it in your own."

School Supplies Outreach
Another new school year is upon us!
In order to meet the requirements of each school/grade, donations are being accepted to purchase school supplies. If you would like to help with this outreach, monies can be given to Terry, Butch or the Elders. Deadline is July 31st, so we will have time to purchase supplies. The School Supplies will be delivered to the appropriate schools the beginning of August.
