GREEN CLIPPINGS

I am so excited to finally get started and be working here in Ellijay. My first week has been incredibly busy, but it has also been extremely rewarding. Sunday was a great start as we celebrated Chase's time here and heard a report on the outstanding mission work in Highgate, Jamaica. It is awesome to know that wherever we go in the world we are united with the Christians there by the blood of our Savior! On Wednesday, Jack James delivered another exceptional lesson as a part of our summer series and reminded us that we are all somebody in the Kingdom of God. Remember that this Wednesday concludes our 2015 series with guest speaker Andrew Kingsley; I hope that we can all be here to end the summer with a bang. There are so many things going on with our church family at Ellijay that we all need to read the newsletter and listen to the announcements so that we can keep up!

Karla and I are finally getting settled and into a routine. We are so appreciative of all of the help we received on moving day. It is such a blessing when Christians come together even to complete ordinary tasks like moving furniture and boxes. As we talk about routines I want you all to know that I am available and at your disposal. I will be in the office Tuesday through Friday during the week beginning at 9:00 AM. If you need to meet with me I would happy to set up a time to talk in the office or at your home. Butch and I are also going to spend a great deal of time visiting and making the rounds so that I have the opportunity to really establish a relationship with everyone here. My cell phone number and email address are in the bulletin, so please take advantage of those. Also, I am on social media for those that communicate via those platforms. You can find me on Facebook, twitter, and Instagram.

In the form of an admonition today, I hope that we all will take the opportunity to be involved in the work here. As we discussed Wednesday while studying I Corinthians 12, we all have talents and gifts that can be used to the glory of God and the betterment of our family in Ellijay. We are not complete without every member of the body fulfilling their role, so we need YOU! I am so excited to be here, and I look forward to many years of service here in beautiful Ellijay.

"that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love."

- Ephesians 4:14-16 (NKJV)
