Today is the "Thanksgiving Appeal" special collection day for Georgia AGAPE. Today we take a huge step to help make a difference in the lives of disadvantaged children. Taking care of the "fatherless" and the orphans of today is a great calling of the church. This is work close to the heart of God. Please give generously! If you are not prepared to participate today, we hope you will still participate by sending your contribution directly to AGAPE, give on-line at www.GeorgiaAgape.org, or you can give it to one of the elders or the church office. Let's all do what we can to help this important ministry!

PRACTICAL ATHEISM Not too many folks will tell you, "I'm an atheist." At least not with their words. But the lifestyles of many say otherwise. I know a lot of people (and you do, too) who are living their lives as if there were no God. They are what could be known as "practical atheists." Not practicing. Practical. They do not take God into consideration. They leave Him out of their reckoning, their speech, their plans and their deeds.

When German theologian Martin Luther was going through a period of dark depression, his wife Katherine was worried. Day after day, Luther would lock himself in his study and cry and pray and bemoan the state of the world. Finally, Katherine appeared before him dressed in black from head to foot. "What are you doing?" he asked her. "Why are you dressed in mourning clothes?" She replied, "You, good doctor, are acting as if God were dead, so I shall dress as if He were!"

Are you living like a practical atheist— disregarding God's commands and precepts, relying on your own wisdom, and refusing to hope in the goodness of God the Father? Or is your belief in God evident in your speech, your refusal to judge your brothers and sisters, and your surrender to God's leading day by day? Faith without works is dead faith, James would say. Don't let your life deny your belief in God.
