We are so glad that you are with us today! Our service will be to praise and worship God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week. We will sing (Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16), pray (James 5:15-18), and partake of the Lord's Supper to remember our Savior's sacrifice on the cross (Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 11:23-26). We will also give back a portion of the monetary blessings that God has granted us so that we can carry out His work in our community (1 Cor. 16:2, 2 Cor. 9:7). We will also study a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to our daily lives, so that we can be equipped to handle the pressures of this world and

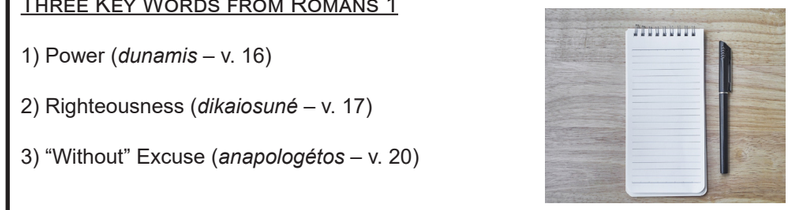
Green Clippings

Thank you for being with us today as we assemble to worship! Things continue to move right along with our meetings, and we are having some great classes and lessons. On Sunday mornings, we are working through 1 Kings during our 9:30 class and preaching through Romans for our 10:30 services. On Sunday evening, we are doing a variety of different things! Tonight, Caleb and I will have a Q&A session, and next week the elders will share some insights from their studies. On the 30th, we will have a singing night to lift our voices to God together. Finally, on Wednesdays, we have two more Summer Series lessons, and our guest speakers will be Cody Bearden and Butch Jones, two men that are very familiar to all of us! Thank you to everyone who is attending, whether in-person or online, as we strive to do the Lord's work during this unprecedented time.

In our study of Romans last week, we mentioned the barrier that had to be broken down between Jews and Gentiles in the local church. I mentioned the story of Felicien Kabuga, the man who financed the Rwandan genocide of the mid-90s and his eventual arrest earlier this year after decades on the run. Unfortunately, his story is not unusual, and history is replete with examples of how hatred has destroyed innocent lives. Whether the tension we face is based on race, gender, politics, or any other controversial subject, hate and Christianity are incompatible. We are commanded to love one another, even more so during conflict. If you had the opportunity to watch our roundtable over the last two weeks, we addressed this topic in depth. I pray that we are all passionate about showing God's love to our brethren and the world!

Sermon Notes



Three Key Words from Romans 1

1) Power (dunamis – v. 16)

2) Righteousness (dikaiosuné – v. 17)

3) "Without" Excuse (anapologétos – v. 20)

Romans 2

Theme: Judgment

A) We Judge Ourselves (1 Cor. 11:27), Other Christians (Gal. 6:1ff), AND the World (Heb. 11:7)

B) We DO NOT Judge Hypocritically (Rom. 2:1-3) OR Superficially (Jn. 7:24)

C) Jesus is the Judge (Acts 10:42; Matt. 25)

D) Being Self-Seeking, Rejecting the Truth, and Following Evil Lead to WRATH AND ANGER (Rom. 2:8)

E) Seeking Glory, Honor, and Immortality Leads to ETERNAL LIFE (Rom. 2:7)

Congratulations to Russell Cochran on his recent graduation from University of Georgia. Please keep him in your prayers as he begins a new adventure in his life.
