

We are so glad that you are with us today! Our service will be to praise and worship God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week. We will sing (Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16), pray (James 5:15-18), and partake of the Lord's Supper to remember our Savior's sacrifice on the cross (Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 11:23-26). We will also give back a portion of the monetary blessings that God has granted us so that we can carry out His work in our community (1 Cor. 16:2, 2 Cor. 9:7). We will also study a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to our daily lives, so that we can be equipped to handle the pressures of this world and

GREEN CLIPPINGS

Welcome to the Ellijay Church of Christ on this Labor Day weekend as we officially end the summer and look towards Fall's beauty. We are continuing to work our way through the Book of Romans this morning by discussing one of the more confusing sections of Paul's most famous letter. I believe that when we work through it, we will share some of the feelings he is trying to express. I hope that you are enjoying our study and benefiting from each lesson.

There are lots of things going on this week! Caleb will be speaking tonight, and our men's and ladies' groups are both meeting this Tuesday morning. We will meet Wednesday night for our mid-week Bible study, and then we will have some big news about the rest of 2020 on our Thursday night Roundtable Devotional Podcast. While we have had to scale back some of our activities, the church is still meeting, functioning, and sharing the message of Jesus. My prayer is that we all continue to focus on our spiritual well-being and make our faith the number one priority in our lives, regardless of what is going on around us.

This week is also very special for our family because Mila turns two on Tuesday. Time has flown by, and I am so proud of her and who she is becoming. I am also thankful that she has so many people here who love and care for her. We are certainly blessed to be a part of the Ellijay family, and we look forward to raising our family with you!
