

We are so glad that you are with us today! Our service will be to praise and worship God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week. We will sing (Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16), pray (James 5:15-18), and partake of the Lord's Supper to remember our Savior's sacrifice on the cross (Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 11:23-26). We will also give back a portion of the monetary blessings that God has granted us so that we can carry out His work in our community (1 Cor. 16:2, 2 Cor. 9:7). We will also study a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to our daily lives, so that we can be equipped to handle the pressures of this world and reach those outside of Christ (2 Tim. 2:15).

The Gift of a Father...

Vinnie Holloran and Larry Mack were the best of friends from childhood. Even in adulthood, they shared holiday celebrations, family functions, and many games of their beloved New York Jets football team. They even joined the New York City Fire Department (FDNY) together.

On September 11, 2001, Vinny perished while responding to the disaster that occurred on that fateful day. Vinny left behind a wife, five sons, and a daughter on-the-way. Larry stepped in to help. Even though he had a family including two children of his own, he also became a surrogate dad to the children of his best friend.

He took the Halloran children camping with his own family, spent time with them on weekends, and shared with them the love he and their father shared for the Jets, whose home games they often attended together.

Mack's own children, 25-year-old Bryan and 22-year old Candice, are proud of their father for helping the Hallorans, and the Hallorans say they will never forget what Mack has done.

"After my father passed away, he was someone who really stepped in," Kieran Halloran, now 24, said.

Connor Halloran, now 26, said his family went through a tough time. While many people sent notes of condolence or a casserole, Mack "was there in a much more real way," Connor said. "And he helped keep everything together when we couldn't."

His brothers, Declan and Jake, said Mack was a kind of father to them. Not only did he take them on trips and hockey games, but he was a role model for them and their siblings.

"I love him ... his smile is like contagious and you just can't help be happy whenever you're around him," Phelan, the 12-year-old daughter Vinny Halloran never met, said of Mack.

Jake Halloran said Mack is happy when he's giving to others. He called Mack's selflessness "an incredible example" to him and his siblings. "He himself is the gift and he gives that to my family ... and so many other people," Jake added.

Kieran Halloran says he knows Mack never had to do what he did for them.

Because of our sins, we are like orphans – without a father and without hope (compare Ephesians 2:12). But God loves us so much that He gave His One and Only Son to die for us so that we can be forgiven of our sins, become His children, and live eternally with Him (John 3:16; Ephesians 1:7). God didn't have to do this for us. He wanted to do it because He loves us!

So, on this "Father's Day," we celebrate the Gift of a Father: the Gift of God's Son, who through His atoning sacrifice, enables each of us to know God as "Father" and to receive the eternal blessings that He gives to His children.

"Well, no," admitted the friend.
