In Our Prayers

Peggy Walker is in a rehab center. She is hoping to be transferred to a different facility and we will have an address then. For now, any cards can be sent to Pam's address at:

Pam Sullivan
6276 Ladd Road
Franklin, Tennessee 37067

David Cochran was returning to his surgeon last week to determine treatment plans. His address is:

549 Chickasaw Drive #34
Ellijay, GA 30540

Charles Plush, Willa Mae Holloway's brother, remains in the hospital undergoing tests.

Chief Cross continues to be under dr's care for health problems.

Please remember Dean & Shirley Cleavinger, friends of Barbara Cox's. Dean is undergoing chemo. Also, their 17 year old grandson, Christensen, is critical after being involved in a motorcycle accident.

9:00 a.m., 1:42 p.m., 1:45 p.m., 7:30 p.m., 9:40 p.m., and 11:00 p.m. During the course of April 14, 1912, the R.M.S. Titanic received six warnings concerning icebergs. She received the last warning only 40 minutes before her collision. Six warnings! All of which were ignored! As a result, 1500 passengers and crew lost their lives in the waters of the cold North Atlantic. The Bible says, "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up" (2 Peter 3:10). We've heard the warning; now what will we do? (Acts 24:25; 26:27-28; 2 Corinthians 5:11; Acts 22:16).—selected

La Mano

Dennis Fisher reports: On a sandy beach in Uruguay, giant concrete fingers partially submerged in sand reach up toward the sky. It is called the Monument to the Drowned. Locals just call it La Mano, "The Hand." It was created by Chilean artist Mario Irarrázabal as a warning to swimmers about the danger of drowning. "The Hand" has become a tourist attraction, but its real purpose remains to remind swimmers about the perils of the sea. *

The Word of God contains its own kind of warning signs. The book of Hebrews, for example, provides cautions about perils to the soul. "Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; but exhort one another daily, while it is called 'Today,' lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin" (Hebrews 3:12-13).

The Word of God warns: sin is deceitful – and deadly! It promises freedom but delivers bondage (John 8:34). It promises thrilling life but delivers chilling death (Hebrews 11:25; Romans 6:23). It promises "no restraints!" but in the end, it brings about the judgment of God (Romans 1:18). In our sin, "it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (Hebrews 10:31). Fisher reminds us that "warning signs are given to us for our safety. Praise God that He has given us protective warnings in His Word because of His great love for us."

The Word of God also reveals: "Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, That it cannot save; Nor His ear heavy, That it cannot hear. But your iniquities have separated you from your God; And your sins have hidden His face from you, So that He will not hear" (Isaiah 59:1-2).

Yet because of His great love for us, God has "reached out to us with His hand" in the person of His Jesus with His offer of forgiveness and eternal life. Although our sins separated us from Him, God "bridged the gap" by allowing Jesus to die on the cross for our sins (Ephesians 1:7). Through Jesus we can be reconciled to God (2 Corinthians 5:18-21).

God will save those who accept His offer of salvation and life by placing their faith and trust in Jesus (Acts 16:30-31), turning from sin in repentance (Acts 17:30-31), confessing Jesus before men (Romans 10:9-10), and being baptized (immersed) into Christ for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). He will continue to cleanse those who continue to walk in the light of His Word (1 John 1:7).

For the penitent sinner who places his faith and trust in Christ, God's hand – la mano de Dios – is not a dreadful place but rather a place of forgiveness, peace, and eternal life. —selected

School Supplies Outreach

Another new school year is upon us!

In order to meet the requirements of each school/grade, donations are being accepted to purchase school supplies. If you would like to help with this outreach, monies can be given to Terry, Butch or the Elders. Deadline is July 31st, so we will have time to purchase supplies. The School Supplies will be delivered to the appropriate schools.
