Thank you for all the thoughts and prayers lifted up for the mission trip to Highgate, Jamaica, last week. The Campaign was one of the best ever with many Bible studies accomplished, four precious souls added to the Lord's church, and arrangements made for more studies in the upcoming days and weeks.

As Christians, we are aware our teaching of God's Word will most likely be with friends, family members and in our local communities. However, we also know and realize we are told in Mark 16:15 to, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." Whether we accept the responsibility of the great commission to teach God's word locally or world wide, the importance of this command is the same- to teach the love and sacrifice made so that "... whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

God created the world and Jesus came to save the world. It is our responsibility and challenge to teach the world.
