I'd like to take a minute to welcome our guest this morning and invite you back for our services this evening. We are having our "Annual North Georgia Back to School Night". Terry Stuart from the Blairsville Congregation will be bringing the lesson on "New Beginnings". Jon Podein from the Calhoun Congregation will be leading the singing. We hope you will be here, either as a young person getting ready for a new school year or as a mentor of young people trying to encourage them to "do their best".

We have just passed the 24th anniversary of a terrible event that makes a powerful example for each of us. On July 31, 1976, Colorado's Big Thompson Canyon experienced one of the most deadly flash floods in American History. 144 people were believed to have perished in the flood. That number is now 143 after Darrell Johnson, one of five assumed victims whose bodies were never found, was found alive and well...

Johnson was believed to be staying in a small cabin in the Big Thompson Canyon when the flash floods washed away the cabin and 417 other homes. Even though his body was never found, Johnson was counted among the dead.

Recently, however, as plans were being formulated for a memorial plaque to commemorate the names of all of the victims, residents of the Canyon tried to locate the victims who were still unaccounted for so they didn't list any survivors among the dead. That's when they found Darrell Johnson ALIVE and well in Oklahoma. The 65-year-old Johnson told a news reporter that he didn't know he had been counted among the 144 victims until one of the residents called him years later.

Johnson and his family had indeed rented a cabin in the Canyon just prior to the flood. But because they found the condition of the cabin unsatisfactory, they left the cabin after just one night. In just a few hours after their departure, the resort - including the shabby cabin - was washed away.

Although many may not recognize it, each of us is considered "DEAD" due to our sin. The Apostle Paul wrote to Christians in Ephesus: "you were dead in your transgressions and sins" (Ephesians 2:1). Sin is deadly because it separates us from God (1 saiah 59:1-2) and dooms the sinner to the "SECOND DEATH" (Revelation 21:8).

It is God's will, however, that we recognize our deplorable condition due to sin and - like the Prodigal Son, desire to leave it! (Luke 15:11-32)

Because of His GREAT love for us, God has provided a Way out of sin and its condemnation of death. He has extended His grace to us through the gift of His Son (Ephesians 2:4-9). Jesus paid the price for our sins on the cross (Ephesians 1:7). Although we are DEAD in our transgressions and sins, God can make us ALIVE through Christ (Ephesians 2:5).
