Giving Thanks

We would like to welcome our guests today, especially the Veteran men and women who have served our county in the armed forces. We appreciate you being with us today and would like to have you back at any and all services. Please stay for our luncheon following services and thank you to our ladies who have done a fine job in preparing food for our meal today.

Please take a moment to read the following article that should make us think about the blessings God provides each day.

His family had been told that there was no chance of finding their missing boy alive. His body had not yet been discovered after five days of searching in the rubble of the building in which he had been working when the earthquake struck eastern Turkey. The building was one of about 2,000 that were leveled by the quake, killing at last 573 people and injuring approximately 2,500 others.

Thirteen-year-old Ferhat Tokay was working in a shoe shop on the ground floor of the building in Ercis, Turkey, when the 7.2 magnitude quake occurred. He was instantly trapped, and despite his efforts was unable to free himself.

But soon after rescue workers had sent his uncle and other relatives away to get some rest with no glimmer of hope, they discovered Tokay - alive! The workers were able to pull him from the rubble without injury.

A state-run news agency reported that Tokay survived, despite having no food, by drinking rainwater that seeped through cracks in the wreckage around him. While trapped, he was able to peer through a tiny gap in the wreckage to see when it was day or night. He and his family were unsure if he would ever see the light of day again... But he was rescued! *

Tokay's entrapment in the rubble illustrates our own bondage to sin. Jesus said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin" (John 8:34; see also Romans 6:16). In sin, we are ALL (Romans 3:23) under its dominion and doomed for destruction (see Matthew 7:13-14). And, we can't dig our way out! We are trapped!

But JESUS came to our rescue! By paying the price for our sins, He is able to pull us from the wreckage and ruin of sin (Ephesians 1:7) - IF we will accept His offer!

Trapped in the rubble of sin? Don't despair! Jesus has come to rescue you! Accept His offer of salvation, and you can be freed from sin. - selected

It is a special time in the life of our spiritual family here at Ellijay. It's our desire and prayers that everyone be involved and a part of the work of our Lord here in Ellijay, Gilmer County and North Georgia. Please take note of the coming events and remember we want and need your participation.

November 19th - Elders, Deacons, Ministry Leaders and Minister Meeting, and all men of the congregation: Are invited to a day of planning and prayer. David Shannon, from Mt. Juliet, Tennessee, will be with us for the day. Our Elders and Butch are preparing breakfast, starting at 8:30 a.m.. Our work session will begin at 9 a.m.. We will have a working lunch and will wrap up between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m.. If you cannot attend all day, please come when you can. Your presence at this meeting is very important and we hope you will set aside this day to be with us.

November 20th - The Elders will be meeting with the ladies of the congregation during Bible study. All ladies are requested to be present.

November 27th - The Elders will be meeting with the teens of the congregation during Bible study.
