Clay Holloway is recovering at home from surgery.

Garry Rittenberry had a procedure done last week to help strengthen his vocal cords. One of the vocal cords was strained in his initial surgery on his neck.

Alice Crow is having some health issues at this time.

Alice Cole is suffering with pneumonia.

Mike Bailey continues to recover from surgery.

Barbara Morse is recovering from bronchitis.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Joyce Nelson in her passing away. Joyce is Marlene Ellis' daughter. Family will be receiving friends today after 2pm at Bernhardt's Funeral Home and the funeral will be Monday, 2pm from the Bernhardt Chapel.

Luke Hall, a student at Memphis School of Preaching, will bring the lessons Sunday, December 4th, a.m. and p.m. service.

Join us Friday, December 9th, for our Holiday Party at Sue's Log Cabin Restaurant, beginning at 7pm. In conjunction with having it at a restaurant, the cost for this year's party is slightly higher than years past. If you would like to make a donation toward this, please feel free to do so. However, we do not want anyone to not come due to financial reasons nor to feel obligated to make a donation. We look forward to seeing you there! The meal will be ham, turkey & dressing, green beans, mashed potatoes, casserole and congealed salad. We will need to furnish the desserts.

"The man I ate dinner with tonight killed my brother." These words were spoken by a stylish woman at a Prison Fellowship banquet in Seattle, Washington. She told how the man had murdered her brother during a robbery, served 18 years at Walla Walla prison, then settled into life on a dairy farm, where she had met him in 1983, 20 years after his crime. Compelled by the love of Christ, Ruth Youngsman had gone to her enemy and pronounced forgiveness. Then she had taken him to her father's deathbed, prompting reconciliation.

At the same banquet that night, the forgiven murderer's voice cracked as he addressed the assembly, "Christians are the only people I know that you can kill their son, and they'll make you a part of their family. I don't know the Man Upstairs, but He sure is hounding me." *

You and I are essentially guilty of murder, for it was OUR SINS that made the death of Jesus necessary (2 Corinthians 5:21). Yet, it was also for OUR FORGIVENESS that Jesus died that cruel death (Ephesians 1:7). We "killed" the Son of God, but through His atoning sacrifice, we can be forgiven, become a part of God's family (the church), and receive the gift of eternal life (Acts 2:38-41; Romans 6:23)!

Barry Newton has written, "We were the ones who broke the relationship by sinning [see Isaiah 59:1-2]. And yet, it was God who took the first step toward healing our relationship. Furthermore, although he was entirely without guilt, Jesus bore our penalty for sin by suffering an ignominious death upon the cross."

"God made the FIRST move! God placed greater value upon restoring our relationship with him than avoiding suffering an injustice. And so, Jesus died for us." **

"But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us... For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life" (Romans 5:8,10).

When WE were the offenders, GOD made the "first move" toward reconciliation. In fact, reconciliation to God is ACCOMPLISHED through Jesus Christ. All we must do to be reconciled to God and thus receive forgiveness and the gift of eternal life is to ACCEPT His offer on His terms.

Won't YOU accept His offer?

Today is Thanksgiving Appeal day for Georgia AGAPE. Today we join with churches all over Georgia to help make a difference in the lives of disadvantaged children. Taking care of needy and "homeless" children is a great calling of the church. Today, we make another statement about the tremendous compassion and generosity of Christians. Please give generously! If you are not prepared to participate today, we hope you will still participate by sending your contribution directly to AGAPE or you can give it to one of the elders of the church office. Let's all do what we can to help this important ministry!
