UNREAD

I am a Bible proudly displayed

For all the world to see.

With my leather cover and my gilded pages

I am open to Psalm 23.

But no one ever picks me up

And lovingly turns the page.

And the page that is open to Psalm 23

Is growing brittle with age.

I am a Bible proudly displayed

On a beautifully carved teak stand.

But no one ever reads the words

That were penned by an inspired hand.

My owner thinks my presence

Is his ticket to Paradise.

But he has not consulted me

Nor heeded my advice.

I am a Bible proudly displayed

Open, but never read.

My owners soul will starve to death

For lack of its daily bread.

-Cleah Boaz-
