We are so glad that you are with us today! Our service will be to praise and worship God and to encourage and uplift us to face another week. We will sing (Eph. 5:19, Col. 3:16), pray (James 5:15-18), and partake of the Lord's Supper to remember our Savior's sacrifice on the cross (Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 11:23-26). We will also give back a portion of the monetary blessings that God has granted us so that we can carry out His work in our community (1 Cor. 16:2, 2 Cor. 9:7). We will also study a lesson from His Word that will hopefully be applicable to our daily lives, so that we can be equipped to handle the pressures of this world and reach those outside of Christ (2 Tim. 2:15).

Green Clippings

Welcome to our services at the Ellijay Church of Christ on what is forecasted to be a cool, rainy Sunday morning! Whether you are part of the church family here or just visiting, we consider your presence a blessing! As you drove in this morning, I am confident you noticed the tremendous progress being made on the Fellowship Hall addition. The construction crews are working diligently, and completion is right around the corner! I am excited to begin using this new space for a variety of activities that will contribute to the growth and edification of our church family!

Thanksgiving is almost upon us, and I am looking forward to spending time with friends and family while enjoying delicious meals! The season, however, should be about much more than that. While our holidays are not scripturally ordained, this time of year should make us stop and reflect on our blessings. The Bible is clear that everything we have is a gracious gift from above, no matter how self-reliant we think we are. How often do we stop, hit our knees, and thank God for what we have? I am chief among those guilty of taking things for granted, but this is the time where we can pause and re-examine our gratitude. I also want to encourage you to be here the Wednesday night before Thanksgiving. I realize that some will be traveling, but we will take time to offer songs, prayers, and messages of thankfulness. We will also have a few of our number share what they are thankful for in what has been a very strange year. Please make plans to be with us!

This morning, we will be looking at the penultimate chapter in the Book of Romans and continue our discussion from last week. The beginning of chapter 15 reiterates and clarifies Paul's thoughts in the previous chapter and leads to the beginning of the letter's conclusion. This material is so important as we look to mature spiritually and love one another like Jesus does! This evening at 5:00, there will be a ladies service in the auditorium led by several girls from our youth/college group. During our 6:00 service, the young men will lead our worship period. Please make plans to be here and support our young people as they courageously lead our assemblies!

"May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Romans 15:5-6

ALL IN

I cannot wait for Thanksgiving! It's my favorite holiday! I think we have much to be thankful for every single day we are alive, and especially the blessing of being a Christian! I hope you have an unending list of things you are thankful for. One at the top of all the Sampsons' list is this church family. Please keep lots of folks in your hearts as we enter the holidays. It can be a difficult time of year for some that have lost loved ones or who are isolated, and we certainly have a lot of isolation going on this year!

We look forward to having all our college kids home soon and getting to spend an extended break with them. Many things are coming up on the calendar. Also, we have a great calendar in the works for next year. If you have not gotten your money turned in for Exposure Youth Camp, please turn it in very soon. Let's make this another great week together in the service of the Lord!
